RE: Pro se Motion to Modify or Terminate Probation or Community Control

Motions to modify or terminate your probation or community control are related to your criminal case, but the Public Defender cannot file these motions for you or represent you in your hearing unless the Court appoints us to do so.

We have put together a motion and order that we hope will help you file your own motion to modify or terminate your probation or community control. There are two forms attached to this cover letter: (1) Defendant's Motion to Modify/Terminate Probation/Community Control; (2) Order Modifying/Terminating Probation/Community Control.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING AND FILING YOUR MOTION

1. Contact your probation officer to let him/her know you will be filing this motion. Find out if your probation officer has any objection to the motion.
2. Fill out all of the attached forms correctly.

Write in your name, case number, and the court division.

Fill in all of the blank spaces.

Where you see words separated by a slash mark (/), you need to circle one of the words.

Write the current date in the last paragraph of the Motion and Notice of Hearing.

* DO NOT fill in the court date or time on the Notice of Hearing until you have instructions from the Clerk's Office.

Sign on the line above "DEFENDANT, PRO SE" on the Motion.

Write your telephone number and address in the blanks below your signature.

Write the name and telephone number for your probation officer.

Do not sign the Order and do not write a date on the Order. The judge will sign and date the order in court.

3. Once you have gotten a court date and filled in all of the blanks on the form Motion, make 4 copies of the final Motion.

Keep a copy of the Motion for yourself.

Mail a copy of the Motion to each party listed below:

1. Clerk of Court:
 Felony: Post Office Box 647, Chipley, FL 32428
 2. State Attorney: Post Office Box 590, Chipley, Florida 32428.
 3. Your probation officer.
 4. The judge.
4. When you go to court, bring your copy of the Motion and Order. You should also bring copies of all other documents related to your case, including all verification of completed conditions of your probation or community control.
